When Joseph died, all understanding of the practice of "adoption" was quickly lost. Joseph Smith regarded adoption to be important for salvation. It was lost when he died. Before the Lord's return, this will need to be clarified by the Lord returning to a place on the earth in which He can come and restore again that which was lost... even the fullness of the Priesthood (T&C 141:10) and its attendant rites. This is an orderly process that was ordained in Heaven before the creation and implemented at the time of Adam, and it must be followed in every generation. Until mankind receives the "kingdom" (or Family of God) and the Fathers in Heaven, in strict order, they will remain unprepared for the Lord's return. The hearts of the Fathers and hearts of the children must be sealed together. Pretenders cannot accomplish it, because they will neither know how nor have the authority.
